Dear Board of Commissioners:

At its September 24, 2008 Regular Meeting, the Atlanta-Fulton County Library System Board of Trustees approved the attached resolution regarding both the sale of library property and the establishment of a five-year sunset clause for evaluating the progress of fundraising efforts for the new Central Library.

We are extremely excited about the voters' approval of the bond referendum. Thank you for your continued support of our libraries.

Please call me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

A RESOLUTION OF THE
ATLANTA-FULTON COUNTY LIBRARY SYSTEM BOARD OF TRUSTEES

WHEREAS, the Atlanta-Fulton County Library System Board of Trustees discussed the Library Facility Master Plan at their September 24, 2008 Regular Meeting; and

WHEREAS, on November 4, 2008, voters of Fulton County will have the opportunity to vote, in the General Election, on a $275 million bond referendum implementing the Facility Master Plan (8 new branch libraries, 2 expanded libraries and 23 renovated libraries; including funds to build a new Central Library, with the additional funds to come from the private sector).

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Atlanta-Fulton County Library System Board of Trustees does hereby recommend, to the Fulton County Board of Commissioners, the following:

That all proceeds from the sale of any library property be used toward implementation of the Library Facility Master Plan; and

A five-year sunset clause be established for evaluating the progress of fundraising efforts for the new Central Library in order to decide whether sufficient funds are available at that time for the new Central Library or whether renovation of the existing building should proceed.

SO PASSED AND ADOPTED, this 24th day of September, 2008.

Atlanta-Fulton County Library System Board of Trustees

John R. Thomas
Chair, Atlanta-Fulton County Library System Board of Trustees
