NEWS FROM THE GEORGIA STATE CAPITOL FOR NORTH FULTON RESIDENTS

As the Georgia Legislative Session hits the quarter stretch for 2008, many bills remain to be considered which will have a direct impact on the current and future lives of North Fulton residents. Tax reform, transportation, education, development, and water distribution are among the topics of daily importance being debated at the Georgia State Capitol this year.

In order to make sense of a busy and sometimes confusing Legislative Session, the House District 47 Republican Party is proud to host a North Fulton Town Hall Meeting with Representative Chuck Martin on Thursday, March 20th starting at 7:30 p.m. at the Alpharetta City Hall. As Vice Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee and directly responsible for the Sub-Committee on Public Safety, Representative Martin has a front seat view of the impact of all potential bills to the residents of North Fulton.

The House District 47/North Fulton Town Hall Meeting will give residents a chance to learn about the legislative process, separate facts from fiction with proposed House bills, and express your thoughts and opinions on the direction of North Fulton in relation to the future of Georgia.
