FULTON COUNTY GOVERNMENT

Fulton County Commissioner Lynne Riley to Hold Community Meeting

On May 21, 2009

Citizens have chance to voice opinions on 2010 county budget

Fulton County Commissioner Lynne Riley (District 3) will hold a community meeting on Thursday, May 21, 2009 at 7 pm in the Alpharetta High School Media Room.

“This meeting will give citizens a chance to learn how the 2010 Fulton County General Fund Budget will affect them,” said Riley. According to the commissioner, representatives from several Fulton County departments will be on hand to discuss the budget’s financial impact on county residents. Officials from Finance, the Board of Assessors and the Health and Wellness Departments will join Commissioner Riley and County Manager Zachary Williams to answer questions about county government services and provide materials explaining the budget development process.

Alpharetta High School is located at 3595 Webb Bridge Road.
