

Riley Salutes North Fulton Community Charities Co-Founder Sonenberg

David Sonenberg, one of eight co-founders of North Fulton Community Charities, which provides emergency assistance to residents in need, receives a proclamation from Fulton County District 3 Commissioner Lynne Riley (fourth from left) at the May 21, 2008 Commission meeting.

During his 25 years as president of the group, Sonenberg opened an office in Roswell, expanded assistance to include food, medicine, transportation and other life necessities, and led efforts to help more than 10,000 persons, including 375 Hurricane Katrina families who evacuated to the area in 2005. Also shown are (from left) Barbara Duffy, executive director, North Fulton Community Charities; Commission Chairman John H. Eaves; and District 2 (at-large) Commissioner Robb Pitts.
